CORRESPONDENCE

Applicant respectfully submits that Applicant's Request for Continued Examination mailed October 17, 2005 was a compliant response. Applicant responded on March 25, 2005 to the Examiner's Restriction Requirement with a traversal argument. However, the Examiner failed to respond to Applicant's traversal argument. On September 14, 2005, Applicant conducted a telephone interview with the Examiner about the lack of response to the traversal argument. The Examiner stated that Applicant should note the traversal argument in the Applicant's Request for Continued Examination, and the Examiner would respond to it. Applicant did so in the Request for Continued Examination. Nevertheless, the Examiner deemed Applicant's Request for Continued Examination non-responsive because Applicant did not include the March 25 traversal argument again.

For the benefit of the Examiner, Applicant has repeated the March 25 traversal argument in the attached response.

Respectfully submitted,

BLAKELY, SOKOLOFF, TAYLOR
& ZAFMAN LLP
